

JOHN (Jack) P. DUGAN
Deputy to the Commander
TACOM Life Cycle Management Command

Mr. John P. Dugan, known to most TACOMers as Jack Dugan, was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on 4 July 1950. He is a veteran, having served with the U.S. Air Force from 1968 to 1972. Following his military service, he entered Temple University and graduated with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree in 1977. Mr. Dugan's civil service career began in 1978 with his acceptance to the AMC Intern Training Center as a Supply Intern. His other professional education includes courses in Weapon Systems Management, ILS and Materiel Acquisition, Major Item Management, Provisioning Management and various management seminars.

Mr. Dugan's early service at TACOM included assignments as an Item Manager, Branch Requirements Officer and Division Budget Officer in the Materiel System Management Directorate (MSMD) and duties as a Supply System Analyst in the Logistics Division of the Program Manager for Tank Systems. Following these assignments, Mr. Dugan held a series of leadership positions within MSMD's Tactical Vehicle Division starting in 1984 as HMMWV Section Chief in the Light Vehicle Branch; Acting Chief, Light Vehicle Branch; Director, SLEP Task Group; Director, Repower and Emissions Compliance Task Group; Chief, SLEP Management Office and Chief, Intensive Management Office. He has also served in a variety of other TACOM leadership positions to include Director of Readiness, Director, IMMC XXI Task Force, Product Line Executive for Combat Vehicles, Director, Heavy Combat Commodity Business Unit, and Director, Logistics Integration Office. In July 2003, Mr. Dugan was assigned to the position of Acting Director, Integrated Logistics Support Center. He was selected into that position in October 2004 and joined the ranks of the Senior Executive Service. He was then asked to serve as the Interim Deputy to the Commander effective December 2004 and officially selected into the TACOM LCMC Deputy to the Commander position effective 7 August 2005.
